

Maths

Position and direction-measurement-conversions and volumes. Decimals involving all four operations.

Intent: Focus study of a story and author who uses imagination and creativity, linked to Science and a focus for comprehension skills.

Book/stories: Tyger by SF Said

English Genre:

Zelda Raincat by Jamie Thomas adapted from Varjak Paw by SF Said.

T4W focus: Openings and Endings.

Science and English: Fact-files about living things and their habitats.

GPS: revision of conjunctions, relative clauses, fronted adverbials and speech.

RSE

Puberty, menstrual cycle, nocturnal emissions, personal hygiene

Recognising good and bad relationships and how to report abuse.

End of Summer 2:

Transition and new beginnings. Getting ready for Year 6.

Change and how to deal with it.

Events – sports day and transition day.

Science focus:

Living things and their habitats:

Describe the differences between the life cycles of a mammal, amphibian, an insect and a bird. Detailed labelled diagrams and information research.

Describe the life processes of reproduction in some plants and animals.

Summer 2

Living things and their habitats

Music

The History of Music
Music around the World

RE

Sikhism

History/Geography

Habitats around the world Environmental patterns around the world Case studies of city, mountain and desert habitats

Art/DT

Tiger in a Tropical Storm
(Surprised) by Henri Rousseau

Computing

Using Microsoft Office: typing and editing Research skills

Forest School Learning

Pond investigation
Habitats
Investigating insects